NETAJI SUBHAS UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY EAST CAMPUS

(formerly known as Ambedkar Institute Of Advanced Communication Technologies & Research)

Geeta Colony, Delhi - 110031

DEPARTMENT OF TRAINING & PLACEMENT

Subject: Invitation for Campus Recruitment Program for B.Tech / M.Tech Students

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

Warm Greetings from NSUT East Campus!

NSUT East Campus (Formerly AIACTR) is a top-grade engineering institute functioning from its Campus located at Geeta Colony, East Delhi. The Institute has an area of 7.8 acres with modern lab facilities and a green ambiance all around. Its objective is to meet the growing demand for professionals in the fields of engineering and technology.

The foundation Stone of this campus was laid by the Honorable Chief Minister of Delhi Mrs. Sheila Dixit on 24th May 2006. The campus was built in a record time of 18 months by the Public Works Department (PWD). The students have access to all facilities like Centralized Air-Conditioned Labs, well-equipped Library, Student Study Center, RO System, lush green playground, and Rain harvesting system.

The Campus is built on a strong foundation of knowledge and values. It includes highly qualified and distinguished faculty to motivate and challenge students. The college offers not just a degree; it offers an experience and a way of life! With ample technical and cultural clubs, students work towards a holistic development.

NSUT East Campus has succeeded in building a formidable reputation and is now well recognized for its commitment to excellence in technical education and research. The institute offers Bachelor of Technology (B.Tech) and Master of Technology (M.Tech) degrees in two and four engineering disciplines respectively. Keeping in mind various requirements needed in the industry, the institute works in a manner such that it would not only fulfill its obligation towards promoting research in advanced technology but also discharge its responsibility of providing a well-knit industry-technology interface.
